    - (2) To ratify 2023 earning distribution proposal.
  3. Election Item
    - (1) By-election of the Company's Director.
- The major items of the earnings distribution proposal of 2023 resolved at the meeting of the Board of Directors are as follows:
  1. Cash dividends to common shareholders: The amount of cash dividends will be NT$1,178,954,400. As calculated by actual outstanding share number of 736,846,500 shares of the Company as of February 26, 2024, each share will be distributed for a cash dividend of NT$1.6 (the amount which each shareholder receive will be rounded to dollar; remaining amount for fractional shares is recorded as other income of the Company).

2. Upon ratification of this proposal at the annual meeting of shareholders, it is proposed to authorize the board of directors to determine ex-dividend date, distribution date and other relevant affairs. If subsequently the number of outstanding shares is affected by buyback of shares of the Company or transfer, conversion or cancellation of treasury shares, resulting in change in the ratio of distribution of cash dividend to shareholders from earnings, it is proposed to authorize the Chairperson to adjust the ratio of distribution of dividend.

- Pursuant to Article 165 of the Company Act, the shareholder register will be closed from March 24, 2024 to May 22, 2024.
- Shareholders may exercise their voting rights through the STOCKVOTE platform of Taiwan Securities Central Depository Co., Ltd. (<http://stockservices.tdcc.com.tw>) during the period from April 20, 2024 to May 19, 2025.

  - (3) Shareholders who choose to attend shareholders' meetings virtually will be deemed as having attended in person.
  - (4) Shareholders, solicitors, or proxy agents who intend to participate virtually should, starting from 2024/04/20, complete sign-ups and registrations on the TDCC Stockvote two days prior to the date of their shareholders' meeting (before 2024/05/19). Participants will check in, watch a live stream of the meeting, text questions, and cast their votes at shareholders' meetings.
  - (5) Shareholders, solicitors, or proxy agents who have registered for attending shareholders' meetings virtually but intend to attend physically should withdraw their registration in the same way they have made the registration two days prior to the date of shareholders' meetings. Participants who fail to withdraw their registration by the said deadline can only attend virtually.

- (6) Shareholders who have exercised their voting right via written or electronic means but intend to attend shareholders' meetings virtually should withdraw their declaration of intention in the same way they have exercised their voting right two days prior to the date of shareholders' meetings. If participants fail to withdraw their declaration of intention by the said deadline, only the ballots cast via written or electronic means will count.
- (7) Shareholders who attend shareholders' meetings virtually and do not withdraw their declaration of intent after exercising their voting right via written or electronic means can only exercise their proposing and voting rights regarding extempore motions. They cannot vote on the original meeting proposals and the amendments to the content of the original meeting proposals, or propose to amend the content of the original meeting proposals.
- (8) Shareholders who have appointed proxy agents to attend shareholders' meetings are not allowed to attend themselves, except for relevant provisions stipulated in the Regulations Governing the Administration of Shareholder Services of Public Companies or the Company Act. Shareholders whose Power of Attorney (POA) has arrived at the Company to state that they have appointed proxy agents to attend shareholders' meetings but later intend to attend shareholders' meetings virtually should notify the Company to withdraw their appointment in writing two days prior to the date of shareholders' meetings. If participants fail to withdraw their appointment by the said deadline, only the ballots cast by their proxy agents will count.
- (9) In the event that the e-Meeting Platform fails or shareholders have difficulty attending virtually, before the chairperson announces the commencement of shareholders' meetings or during the meetings, due to force majeure events, companies should check the total shares of shareholders that have attended. If the total shares do not reach the legally required number for resolutions in shareholders' meetings after deducting the shares of shareholders that attend virtually, then the meetings should be adjourned.
